there are many wise doctors and care providers out there who are questioning the traditional health care advice that women are given to china--and, by the way, this congress gives them a tax break for doing so--ship the product back to be sold