numerous federal and provincial tax provisions are intended to reduce the burden on a disabled person and his or her family.

"I think I did it for anybody who made a simple mistake, as I did," he said. With the financial accounts of a minister, be it Cahuzac or someone else, how could he have had the courage.