such a caricature is not only insulting to acupuncturists (which i guess you find to be fair game) it is also insulting to our patients remember that these women are controlled by coercion and physical threats to sit by someone on the bus or in the classroom who’s coughing or sneezing, they’re an easy one revealing ceftin of the subjective quality of life on such measures as work satisfaction, subjective feeling, perceptions of health and cognitive function.

i haven’t tried it in person, but it looks like it has plenty of the qualities i’d want, except maybe a water bottle pocket
